FRESCOBALDI

TOSCANA

The Marchesi de' Frescobaldi is one of Italy's oldest wineries, with a history dating to the 1300s. The family has included medieval knights, bankers, lawyers and patrons of the arts. The family has been growing wine since the late 19th century, when they became the first in Tuscany to import and plant French vine cuttings.

The wines of Frescobaldi come from 700 years of passion, experience, ability and love for a select territory which has become the ideal cradle for the highest quality wines. Across over 2500 acres of land, the estates and splendid vineyards of Frescobaldi is where the perfect understanding of the environment and uniqueness of terroir brings a guarantee of constant quality and wines of distinctive personality.

Each estate in Chianti Rufina, Montalcino, Pomino, Colli Fiorentini and Maremma has an independent production with its own dedicated personnel and agronomists.

Wine Spectator has ranked many of their offerings in the 90s and their wines are consistently listed in the magazine's Top 100 Wines of the Year, encouraging wine enthusiasts from around the globe to become familiar with some of Italy's finest wines.
